PRICE & MYERS

Structural Engineer with 5-8 years' experience, London

Come and join us at Price & Myers

You've got five-to-eight years' as a structural engineer under your belt, you've progressed your knowledge of real world engineering well from what you learnt during your degree, and now you're looking around for the next opportunity. We'd love to talk to you about what Price & Myers can offer for someone with your experience.

We're a friendly group of professionals committed to designing great engineering. Here, you'll be able to get your teeth into some really exciting projects (and some more modest ones too) right across the UK. We have a wide variety of work at Price & Myers and we're keen for you to experience it too. You'll have the responsibility you deserve, with all the support and guidance of our senior team.

Price & Myers is a structural and civil engineering practice, established by Sam Price and Robert Myers in 1978. Over more than four decades we've completed a huge range of projects, from Stirling Prize winners to domestic rear extensions. We are designers who help architects and clients bring their vision to life with elegant and efficient engineering. There are about 140 of us across our four studios in London, Oxford, Nottingham and Bristol.

We are on the hunt for someone with five-to-eight years' experience to join our London-based structural engineering team. You must hold a good, IStructE- or ICE-accredited degree in structural or civil engineering, ideally be near-chartered or chartered, a good communicator and have a desire to help us design great engineering. A good variety of experience in refurb and new-build projects is preferred.

Please email a CV and cover letter to Jamie Beeson at careers@pricemyers.com. No recruitment agents please.

Studio Life

The engineers and support team at Price & Myers come from all over the world and all walks of life. We embrace diversity.
